

FASANARA CAPITAL

Global Diversified Alternative Debt Fund

Factsheet | November 2025

Strategy

The Fasanara Capital Global Diversified Alternative Debt Fund aims to create long-term returns (7-10% annual target return in EUR, 9-12% in US Dollar) with very low volatility. The Fund seeks to achieve its objective by primarily investing in trade receivables and digital invoices to be bought from SMEs in Europe, US, Canada, and Australia, with a core emphasis on Europe. The key feature to achieve such returns is to employ a multi-platform investment approach relying on the best country-specific counterparty to reach granularity and true diversification.

Monthly Commentary

The Fasanara GDADF delivered a gross return of 0.93% in November 2025, keeping deployment close to 100% and generating a strong performance compared to previous months.

Global credit markets continued to benefit from a supportive macro backdrop in November 2025, with Euro-area inflation remaining near 2.1%, US consumer-price growth moderating, and UK inflation easing, all of which helped preserve stable rate expectations and constructive lending conditions. Credit demand across SMEs and consumers remained positive: while banks maintained broadly stable lending standards, fintech and alternative lenders continued to capture incremental market share. Fintech channels have increasingly driven origination over the past weeks, with strong volumes in consumer and SME lending supported by scalable digital infrastructure, advanced underwriting, and robust investor appetite. This dynamic resulted in high deployment activity globally, and the portfolio has benefited from the strong origination pipeline and elevated lending volumes during this seasonal peak, reflecting both resilient demand and the continued expansion of alternative credit channels.

Our diversified, short-duration, zero-leverage strategy provides a strong foundation for navigating a dynamic macro environment. With a balanced and risk-conscious approach, the Fund is well-positioned to capitalise on emerging opportunities while managing volatility, supporting performance across market cycles.

Why Invest?

Uncorrelated Asset Class: Trade finance and invoice discounting are real economy trades that traditionally belonged to banks but have recently opened up to alternative and Fintech direct lenders such as Fasanara.

Compelling Risk-adjusted Yield: higher yield typical of SME financing with much lower risks thanks to high grade collateral and ultra-short duration.

Diversification: granular portfolio with more than 600,000 across several debtors and across several sectors and countries.

Short Duration & Yield: average duration 45-90 days. long-only fund, generating a target annual yield of 9-12% in USD.

Resilience: systematic over-collateralisation by advancing on average only 85% of the collateral face value as well as by opportunistically re-insuring against credit default risk.

Investment Opportunity

Invoicing and alternative credit offer potentially attractive risk-adjusted yield to investors. The strategy intends to exploit the disintermediation phenomena of the banking sector and offers investors a unique and direct exposure to global markets, with an emphasis on Europe, by actively targeting quality borrowers based on a multitude of stringent criteria.

Investment Objective

Seeks to generate absolute returns by offering the opportunity to obtain loan exposures from wide-spread, good quality borrowers.

Investment Strategy

Specializes in alternative lending strategies of the new generation 2.0.

Risk Disclosure

Investors should be aware of the risks associated with the Fund. Below are the key risks investors should pay attention to:

Illiquidity of Notes

A significant portion of the portfolio will be invested in notes, which are very illiquid and, as the case may be, it is not possible to liquidate such notes at all.

The Board may suspend redemption of shares if there are significant redemptions.

Credit Risk

The Fund may lose the principal of the underlying loan and/or the interest associated with it in case of borrower bankruptcy or technical default. AN INVESTMENT IN A FUND ENTAILS A HIGH DEGREE OF RISK, INCLUDING THE RISK OF LOSS. There is no assurance that a Fund's investment objective will be achieved or that investors will receive a return on their capital.

Absence of Collateral

The underlying assets of the Fund may consist of loans that are not secured by any collateral or guaranteed or insured by any third party of government agency

The terms of investment in the Fund are governed by the Prospectus (and the relevant Supplement). In the event of any inconsistency between the information in this factsheet and the terms of the Prospectus, the terms of the Prospectus shall prevail.

An absolute return strategy, which includes hedging of the portfolio, may result in performance that deviates from overall market returns to a greater degree than other funds. Hedging may also result in returns that are lower than expected and lower than if the portfolio had not been hedged. It is not possible to hedge fully or perfectly against any risk.

Credit/default risk involves the risk that the credit rating of a security may be lowered or the possibility that the issuer of the security will not be able to make principal and interest payments when due. Investments in derivatives including forward currency exchange contracts, swaps and futures, may be leveraged and could result in losses that exceed the amounts invested.

Investing in international markets involves certain risks and increased volatility not associated with investing solely in the core countries.

These risks include currency fluctuations, economic or financial instability, and lack of timely or reliable financial information or unfavourable political or legal developments.
